

Tablatura de flauta

The diagram illustrates the fingerings for a recorder (flute) across two octaves. The top part shows a musical staff with a treble clef and note heads. The bottom part shows a series of recorders, each with ten finger holes. Blue dots indicate closed holes, and white circles indicate open holes. Below each recorder is a corresponding musical note label.

Notes from left to right:

- do
- do#/reb
- re
- re#/mi♭
- mi
- fa
- fa#/sol♭
- sol
- sol#/lab
- la
- la#/si♭
- si
- do'
- do'#/re'♭
- re'
- mi'
- fa'